- Para 4.12 of the SGRY guidelines deals with the provision for administrative/contingent expenditure at the Gram Panchayat level. Under the second stream of SGRY, Village Panchayats may spend upto a maximum of 7.5% of the annual allocation of funds or Rs. 7,500/- whichever is less during a year on the administrative/contingencies and for technical consultancy.
- In view of the above, the Government has decided to take technical support from the private sector Engineers and Architects from the panel of Engineers and Architects enlisted at Annexure A and B respectively of this order, whose services can be utilized by the Village Panchayats for preparation of architectural drawings, RCC designing with drawings, Bill of Quantities, Structure Liability Certificate, supervision of works, etc. The fees shall not exceed as mentioned in Para 4.12 of SGRY guidelines.
- However, the estimates so prepared by these Engineers/Architects are required to be technically approved by Executive Engineer of the District Rural Development Agency or the Superintending Engineer from the Public Works Department or Water Resources Department appointed by the Government for this purpose.
- The Engineers of the District Rural Development Agency will exercise overall check on the construction and completion certificate will be obtained from the Engineers/Architects with verification done by the Executive Engineer or Superintending Engineer as mentioned above.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

N. D. Agrawal, Joint Secretary (R.D.).

Panaji, 4th January, 2005.
